

The Monmouthshire
Incorporated Law Society

“Cohabitation and TOLATA”

9th March 2017 at the Parkway Hotel, Cwmbran.

Registration from 4:15pm for a 4:30pm start.

This course would be relevant to both Family and Civil Litigators.

- Christopher Felstead (1993 call, Recorder) will be speaking on “Establishing a Beneficial Interest in Property” and reviewing Stack v Dowden, Jones v Kernott and Pettitt v Pettitt to discuss sole and joint-name cases as well as inferred and imputed intention;
- Matthew Barry (2002, MCI Arb, Family Law Arbitrator) will deal with TOLATA, reviewing key recent cases and covering quasi-family vs quasi-commercial arrangements, jurisdiction and incomplete agreements;
- David Gareth Evans (2008, Deputy District Judge) will deal with Cohabitation Claims and take delegates through the process from Pre-Action conduct and Issue through to Court Proceedings and Trial.

Members: £30.00

Non-members: £40.00

If you wish to attend the course please email Jade Cox on jcox@etlp.co.uk

PARK PLACE
CHAMBERS